Encl: (1) List of Effective White Letters

1. The White Letter remains an effective vehicle by which I can convey my thoughts or views to Commanders on subjects of current interest. These letters are not intended to supplant or duplicate current Marine Corps directives. If the topic requires long-term attention, it will become the subject of, or be incorporated in, an appropriate directive.

2. I have recently reviewed all existing White Letters and have listed at the enclosure those I consider pertinent. White Letters listed in the enclosure will continue to be maintained in organizational files. All other White Letters are hereby cancelled.

3. A formal White Letter Review will be conducted biennially. The Director, Marine Corps Staff will announce the review and provide instructions at the beginning of December in each even-numbered calendar year.
